For Moral Integrity

These 2 pages are a commitment between Pastor and Accountability Partner. It is designed to augment any other safety measures that may already be in place.

The following is my commitment, as Pastor, to you:

- _____ My wife has access to every cell phone, laptop, bank account, email account, voicemail, social network, and text message that I have or use. And they are monitored periodically.
- _____ My schedule will not allow me to travel overnight alone.
- _____ My schedule will not allow me to be alone with another woman, anywhere.
- _____ I actively surround myself with relationships which are positive examples of what integrity means in life and marriage.
- _____ My internet activity is monitored.
- _____ All of my televisions are set to block inappropriate stations and shows.
- _____ I do not counsel women alone.
- _____ I actively incorporate scriptures addressing moral integrity into my personal growth plan.
- _____ I actively pursue God at all times in my life through conversation and Bible reading & study.
- _____ My schedule demands that for every six days engaged in ministry I must take one FULL day off totally disengaged.
- _____ I give you full authority to ask me, with respect, any question you feel is necessary to maintain my authenticity.

The following is a result of the blog posts by Pastors Shaun King, Craig Groeschel, and Perry Noble concerning moral integrity.
